Weekly rhythm planner

Group / week / familiar adults / family information

Repeated anchor and why it fits these children

Play space / materials / outdoor connection

Access, care, supervision and safety arrangements

What to repeat, adapt or stop after review

Individual observation

Child identifier / date / context / observer

What I saw or heard (facts and child communication)

Adult support / access / environmental conditions

Possible meaning (tentative) and next opportunity

Family rhythm conversation

Family priorities / home words / care information

What helps the child feel comfortable and included?

Shared observation and agreed next step

Follow-up date / consent / approved storage

Activity adaptation record

Activity ID / child or group / meaningful purpose

Materials and environment changes

Movement, sensory and communication supports

Safety check / adult responsibility / response and next step

Project and transition review

Project / children’s ideas / dates

What children returned to / changed / communicated

Useful literacy, number or social support offered

What to preserve / revise / share with family